

KIDS & TEENS FREELANCING TRAINING INSTITUTE

Front End Development Course Outline

Week 1: Introduction to Web Development

- What is front-end development?
 - How websites work (basic internet + browser concepts)
 - Overview of HTML, CSS, and JavaScript
 - Tools needed: Code editor, browser, and GitHub
-

Week 2: HTML Basics

- HTML tags and structure
 - Creating headings, paragraphs, and lists
 - Adding images, links, and tables
 - Build a simple “About Me” web page
-

Week 3: CSS Styling

- What is CSS and how it works
 - Colors, fonts, backgrounds
 - Box model and spacing (margin, padding)
 - Styling the “About Me” page
-

Week 4: Layouts with CSS

- Intro to Flexbox and Grid (kid-friendly approach)
 - Creating responsive layouts
 - Design a mini web portfolio layout
-

Week 5: Introduction to JavaScript

- What is JavaScript?
- Variables, data types, and basic functions

- Add interactivity: Button click, change text/color
 - Build a fun interactive quiz
-

Week 6: Bringing It All Together

- Combine HTML, CSS, and JS in one project
 - Build a personal website or digital portfolio
 - Upload project to GitHub or present to class
-

Bonus Topics (Optional):

- Intro to animations with CSS
- Adding Google Fonts and icons
- Website design tips for beginners
- Exploring websites like CodePen and Replit